Website Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy sets out how Chiswick Baptist Church (a member of the Fellowship of Independent Evangelical Churches) uses and protects any information you give us when accessing our website.

We are committed to ensuring that your privacy is protected. Users contacting us through this website do so at their own discretion and provide any personal details requested voluntarily. Any information you provide in which you can be identified when accessing our website will only be used in accordance with this Privacy Statement.

What information do we collect?

We may collect the following information:

- your name
- email address
- telephone number

This information will only be collected with your knowledge and consent.

How is the information used?

We use this information to respond to any queries which you may submit through our website. It will not be passed onto a third party unless the law requires us to do so. If you ask for your data to be deleted once we have responded to your request, we will do so immediately. You may request its removal by emailing info@chiswick.church

When you visit our website <https://www.chiswick.church/> your IP address is automatically captured by the software which tells us how many people visited our site. This information is anonymous and does not allow us to identify you as a website visitor.

Security

We are committed to ensuring that your information is secure. In order to prevent unauthorised access or disclosure, we have put in place suitable physical, electronic and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online.

Links to other websites

Our website may contain links to other websites of interest. However, once you have used these links and leave our site, we have no any control over those websites and are not responsible for the protection and privacy of any information you provide them. You should exercise caution and look at the Privacy Policy applicable to the website in question.
